

THE ARCHITECT

THE ARCHITECT

What is more delightful to the mind than a puzzle? Though the world offers complexity and entropy, our intelligence can create from it simplicity and order. You love complex problems because these are the clay from which you craft elegant solutions.

You are extremely rational: you will not be found searching for magic. Still you pride yourself on being creative, for it is through this skill that breakthroughs are found. You're a lover of systems, models and blueprints. Through these tools you believe you can offer those around you a plan that will lead to their own achievement and success. After all you are selfless: your highest purpose is to serve and inspire others.

KEY VALUES:

Competence, Efficiency, Imagination

THE ALCHEMIST

THE ALCHEMIST

We marvel to hear that the universe is built from a handful of atomic building blocks; that our entire beings are encoded in a single strand of DNA, itself made of only a few proteins.

You seek to seize nature's power to create the impossible through unique combinations of the simple — to turn the ordinary into gold.

Unorthodox, wise, thoughtful, boundary-breaking and brave today's alchemists may combine science with ancient wisdom, business with philanthropy or technology with nature. You revere the past but believe nothing can remain still, so you always seek to update tradition to find new relevancy.

KEY VALUES:

Curiosity, Progress, Empowerment

THE ORACLE

THE ORACLE

Without a North Star to orient them, even the swiftest ships would sail hopelessly in circles. Without principles to guide them, the greatest heroes become dangerous outlaws. You are that North Star – the embodiment of the unbending, non-negotiable values from which others draw inspiration.

Knowing that all truth is universal, you draw your teachings from a source of wisdom that has always brought out the best in mankind. You are self-reflective and nurturing but unyielding and wise. You recognize that those you inspire may not carry out your teachings perfectly. You also know that your integrity lies in an unwillingness to compromise on what is right and true.

KEY VALUES:

Nurture, Tradition, Empowerment

THE HEALER

THE HEALER

While the world may seem hopelessly broken to some, The Healer is blessed with the ability to fix it, one life at a time. You are able to feel the pain of others and that has always compelled you to help relieve it — an act that brings you deep satisfaction.

While you are gentle and kind, you also carry a deep indignation toward those who treat other lives as if they were disposable. You prefer to lead by your actions. You can be extremely humble but at times you seek to innovate new ways to bring comfort and justice. When you find those ways you can be a fiery advocate for the elixirs you have discovered.

KEY VALUES:

Health, Love, Prosperity
